About Future Creatives

Now in its second year, Future Creatives brings together industry professionals from on and off the Island, to provide a programme of events designed to educate, inspire and motivate young people to engage with creative careers at every stage of education.

Creative industries are the UK's fastest growing sector and account for 1 in 14 of all jobs across the UK economy, that's over 3 million jobs! Last year Island educators demonstrated their desire to shine a light on these opportunities by bringing along well over 900 young people to this Island-wide happening.

The Future Creatives week not only helps to showcase what jobs exist within the creative industries but what could be possible in pursuing a creative career, both off and on our Island.

This year, as well as 15 incredible organisations and individuals that are taking part for a second year running, we are also working with 16 new partners, with the week touching on over 50 different roles of the creative industries! In addition, we are including creative roles found in other work areas that require a creative approach, such as the NHS and even Diving!

The experiences on offer are either hosted in schools or at industry locations across the Isle of Wight and are presented on each page by target key stage.

ALL events are delivered FREE thanks to Arts Council England.

How to get involved

Discover our Home-Grown Creative Careers Profiles.

It is so important for young people to have real-life examples of what can be possible within a creative career.

The CEP have been speaking to people who grew up on the Isle of Wight, to see what they have to say about their successful career in the creative industries and how they got to where they are today.

As a result, we have created a library of profiles that can be used to inspire and spark conversations around career paths and help pupils appreciate that living on the Isle of Wight doesn't have to limit the possibilities open to them, or their potential to earn from something they love.

You will find printable versions and additional resources to support engagement with the profiles at:

<https://iwcep.co.uk/creative-careers-profiles>

Who are we?

The Cultural Education Partnership IW is a developing resource of local, regional and national creative individuals and organisations, committed to working with the Island's schools to nurture creative education for all young people. We aim to ensure that every child and young person has access to the highest quality cultural opportunities that directly contributes to the needs of schools and their communities.

IWCEP consults, hosts CPD events, delivers workshops, builds networks, advises, connects artists with schools and raises new investment for cultural activity. We encourage teachers to get in-touch to discuss their challenges and ambitions both to deliver the curriculum and extra-curricular activities.

You can join our termly meetings at which educators and cultural leaders network, share project updates and opportunities, discuss wider educational impacts, and are offered FREE CPD from industry professionals.

The Isle of Wight Cultural Education Partnership is Delivered by Creative Island a Cultural Development organisation, committed to improving the quality of life of all those who live on the Isle of Wight.

FAQs

Are all the workshops during the week completely free?

Yes!

Are workshop timings flexible?

Sometimes yes. If you are interested in an event but the timings for workshop aren't quite right, get in touch to discuss.

Are workshop dates flexible?

In some cases, YES but this is up to the provider of the session. Please get in touch and we will do everything we can to accommodate your needs.

Is Transport available for workshops that take place outside of my own school?

Yes, in some cases. We may be able to supply this at a reduced rate. If you think you may require transport please ensure you call to enquire as soon as possible.

If I book an event to take place in my school am I required to have a risk assessment?

Yes. The professionals coming to your schools will also have risk assessments.

If I book an event to happen in my school will members of my staff be expected to be present?

Yes, at all times.

Are any refreshments supplied at events?

No.

Are all workshop deliverers DBS Checked?

Not all deliverers are DBS checked – we therefore require members of your staff to accompany pupils at all times.

Are sessions suitable for young people with SEND?

All workshop deliverers have been required to consider SEND and had relevant training. If you think you might have specific requirements, contact us.

Do young people have to wear uniform to/at events?

This is completely up to the school participating. We would just advise that you consider the type of activity when making your decision.

Will pupils from other schools be present at workshops?

Yes, in some cases.
